Bloom Boom definitely has it going on.
It's got nutrients in all the right places. Your flowers will soon swoon over this goodness. Bloom Boom is Mother Nature approved and has zero skeletons in it's closet.

Organically Certified

Lovingly created for blooming and floral plants.

How to use: Give several shakes around the base of each plant, then water. You're essentially adding nutrients to the soil. We use what Mother Earth provides, so don't be shy - shake more for larger plants and better growth!

Application Rate: 1 lb. per 100 square ft.

Apply every few weeks or if your plant starts to look a bit sad.
