

A sweet gift —

Matthew Perry's drawing on our cover, celebrates our 70th gift giver's season.

So many gifts — made, chosen,
given — and YOU, our customer,
the best gift of all. So . . .

every single one of us at Bennington Potters says to every single one of you — over all our 70 years: Thank you!

Mugs, Mugs, Mugs!

Tankard Mug

Wide bottomed with a graceful tapered shape, this sturdy yet elegant mug features the big handle and rolled rim so many people ask for.

4"H 12 oz #S1 $20-$24
price varies by glaze

American Classic Mug

Strong, capacious, this classic holds twice the usual cuppa. The wide mouth allows double duty for soup, cereal, ice cream.

3 3/4"H 16 oz #9925 $22-$26
price varies by glaze

Original Mug

David Gil designed this mug while he was a student. A mid-century classic, the design still feels fresh and new. We offer them in original glazes, matte black and matte white.

3"H 12 oz #1365B $22

The Famous Trigger Mug

For 70 years+ the mug that made mugs famous has been making Bennington Potters famous too. Well balanced and comfortable to hold, this is an enduring classic.

4"H 11 oz #1340 $18-$22
price varies by glaze

Classic Dinnerware

The satin finishes — here Elements Gold and Elements Blue — play well with other glazes — beautiful alone — beautiful mixed

TRUST BENNINGTON —

Use our lead-free dinnerware confidently every day, every meal.

Blue Agate

Originally inspired by the variegated patterns of natural stones, spatterware and agateware are beloved pottery traditions. As both homage and interpretation, Bennington's brilliant blue agate glaze has delighted generations.

Beautiful Bennington

works hard for you in the kitchen

At Bennington, the essential design happens through the hands. Yes, we do drawings, work with concepts. But, it's as we make one — the first one — that the conversation of heart, hand, eye and mind accomplishes the work of design. You will feel this reality when you use these bowls, our homage to the traditional New England batter bowl.
