

“I am able to take a stand. My exposure to the gender program gave me confidence.”

-Linda, Cocoa Farmer, Ghana

The Kuapa Kokoo cooperative in Ghana provides the cocoa for delicious Divine Chocolate and strives to strengthen gender equity through a variety of programs. The cooperative is also a part-owner of the Divine Chocolate Company. Linda was recently elected to the governing council for the cooperative after being an active member for nine years. She has four children, and is pictured here with her youngest, Nathaniel.
