

Empowered with Opportunity

Sushila is a jewelry artisan in India, working with Asha Handicrafts to support herself and her four daughters. As a widow, Sushhila had great difficulty finding work as widows are commonly stigmatized in parts of India. Her work has given her the opportunity to combat that stigma and provide for her family with her sustainable income.