

Earnings into her Own Hands

Laxmi Meharjan excelled at weaving, even when she was a girl. Her weavings were sold, but Laxmi never saw any money. Her earnings went to her father and later to her husband. When Laxmi began working with Serrv's partner in Nepal, she took her earnings into her own hands for the first time in her life. She vowed to use that money to put her daughter Sudha through school. And she did—Sudha earned a Master's degree in social work.
