

“Handcraft work is very close to my heart. Through handcrafts, I was able to support the needs of my 11 children and send them all to school. Though they all have their own families now, I continue making handcrafts because of my passion for it and to give some assistance to my grandchildren as well.”

-Adela Masongsong, Artisan, Philippines