

Creating Community

Our crocheted items are made by a group of 26 women in central Vietnam. Most of them use their income to pay school fees for their children. Their group was formed nearly 10 years ago as a way to help local women earn an income while they stayed home with their young children. Now many of the women also farm or work in stores, but their crochet work generates income to invest in their children's futures while creating meaningful community.