Mandala Recipe Stand 32643 $42

Sustainably sourced mango wood is etched by hand with mandala motifs, then whitewashed to highlight the detail on this gorgeous recipe stand. The stand fits both recipe books and tablets! It also features a charger port opening and a hinged, adjustable back for various display angles.

A SERRV partner since 1976, this artisan group, with 800+ artisans in more than 50 cooperatives and family workshops throughout India, provides interest-free loans, business and computer training, and fair wages. Many of these artisans also received pantry staples when much of India was locked down due to COVID.

Spurtle Utensil Set 37830 $28

This handy handmade teak wood spurtle set is cut, sanded, and polished to perfection. It's food safe, and the set features two long spatulas and a long turner.

A SERRV partner since 1994, this handcrafting group in Bali is made up of nearly 100 artisans. Many are small family workshops, and each gains access to international markets and fair prices for their traditional handcrafts. This artisan group also replants albizia trees to help combat deforestation in Indonesia.

Organic Olive Oil 43106 $9

This delicious organic cold-pressed oil is the winner of the Extra Gold Medal at the Premio Biol competition in Italy, as well as one of the Top 100 Best in the World at EVOOLEUM. It's perfect for cooking and dipping, and pairs perfectly with a jar of Traditional Za'atar seasoning!

A SERRV partner since 2003, the Arab olive farmers in this group receive information on organic farming, fair prices for their olives, and access to local markets in Israel to sell them. Israeli and Palestinian women collaborate to then craft this award-winning olive oil, and together build a model of peaceful coexistence.

Maya Denim Apron 46332 $36

This super cute kitchen apron is made from recycled cotton denim and has hand-stitched kantha accents. It's great for hiding stains, and even better than that, it's machine washable! Each one has a single pocket and an adjustable tie. A matching potholder is also available.

A SERRV partner since 2008, this artisan group in Bangladesh employs women who escaped sex work and human trafficking on the streets of Dhaka. A protective workplace, psychological support, fair wages, and steady handcrafting income help them start a new life.

Red Quail Potholder 65804 $18

This handmade cotton potholder features thick stitched quilting padding, and a screen-printed scarlet quail and floral design. Store it using the attached hanging loop. A matching apron is also available.

A SERRV partner since 1993, the felt-making artisans in this group—90% of whom are women—receive not only support to send their daughters to school in an area where this is rare, but also access to paid maternity leave, which is also rare. For many, handcrafting remains their only source of income while much of Nepal faces lockdowns due to COVID-19.

Quezon Mortar & Pestle 74497 $30

This eco-friendly wood mortar and pestle is made with lightweight and fast-growing acacia wood. Carved, sanded, and stained to perfection, it makes a handsome sustainable addition to your kitchen.

A SERRV partner since 1988, this artisan group from the Philippines ensures 28 small producer groups receive fair wages for their handcrafts, as well as product design assistance, business training, and access to global markets. Artisans also have access to medical and nutrition programs, and receive training on sustainable agriculture.
