

South African Foods

---

In South Africa, 60% of black women and half of the nation's youth are unable to find jobs. This means families lack sufficient income to provide themselves with food, shelter, and education for their children. Fair trade partner Turqle Trading is committed to providing employment and education opportunities.